

Graham Beck Bliss Nectar Rose

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: South Africa

REGION: Western Cape

CEPAGE: 58% Pinot Noir, 42% Chardonnay

WINEMAKING: Chardonnay and Pinot Noir grapes are pressed separately in whole bunches to ensure top quality juice recovery. They are then blended to showcase the specific aroma profile of this Cap Classique, then bottled and left for 12 months yeast contact time before disgorgement. A special selection of liquor d'expedition was added to produce this delectable sweeter style of Cap Classique.

AGING: 12 months on lees before disgorgement

ANNUAL PRODUCTION: 4000 Cases

THE STORY

In their pursuit of the perfect bubble, Graham Beck raises the bar in terms of quality and distinction, and has established themselves as one of the world's leading sparkling wine brands, devoted to quality and consistency.

PHILOSOPHY: Graham Beck is committed to caring for the community and environmental conservation. Graham Beck's passion is putting their people and the planet first.

BIOGRAPHY: Pieter "Bubbles" Ferreira (Cellar Master) eats, drinks and breathes bubbles! His extraordinary dedication to crafting wines of authenticity, consistency, and supreme elegance. Pierre de Klerk (Winemaker) lives by the mantra: "Bubbly is a calling, not merely a vocation." His infectious enthusiasm has contributed a fresh and eager dimension to the mix at Graham Beck.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: An indulgent delight for the senses. Aromas of raspberries, ch

THE SELLING POINTS

For those who do not like it dry

