THE STORY

Our wines are born from an adventure that links France to Mexico. Henri Lurton, owner of the Grand Cru Classé, Château Brane-Cantenac in Margaux, with the support of his eldest sons, Vincent and Nicolas, has placed a confident bid on Baja California. He is convinced of its winemaking potential, the warmth of its people and the generosity of the land.

The winemaker Lourdes Martinez Ojeda, after working for almost 10 years at Château Brane-Cantenac, is returning to her hometown of Ensenada to bridge the divide between France and Mexico.

At Bodegas Henri Lurton we seek to faithfully convey nature's bounty and the Baja terroir, uniting it with our mestizo vision that is based around tradition and authenticity.
