

Ca Viola

Barbera d'Alba Brichet

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy
REGION: Piedmont
APPELLATION: Alba

THE STORY

Giuseppe "Beppe" Caviola, one of the most important oenologists in Italy, has worked as a winemaking consultant for many notable producers and in 2002, was named "Enologist of the Year" by Gambero Rosso. In 1991 Beppe decided to make his own wine, locating his cellar in Dogliani, in the heart of Piemonte. Ca'Viola means "little violet house" in local dialect.

PHILOSOPHY: Beppe showcases the terroir of the Langhe employing sustainable vineyard and winemaking practices at all times. He does not use select yeasts and does not filter his wines, except the Riesling. His focus is on the microclimate and grape and creating a wine that reflects the purest expression possible of this terroir.
