

Edoardo Miroglio Bio Rose (Bouquet/Melnik/Mavrud)

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Bulgaria
REGION: Thracian Valley
APPELLATION: Thracian Valley

THE STORY

Edoardo Miroglio winery is an impressive 220 hectares of vineyards in Elenovo, Bulgaria. The village of Elenovo is located in the region of Thrace, where the origins of winemaking date back to the cult of Dionysus. It is thought that some native varieties, such as Mavrud, were already grown on the hills of southern Bulgaria more than 5,000 years ago. Edoardo Miroglio became certified organic in 2013, and is considered to be one of the most modern wineries in the country.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Juicy & Spicy
AROMAS / FLAVORS: Red berries, cherry, fine spices
MOUTHFEEL: Vibrant & Crisp

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Grilled prawns, Mediterranean food, hearty salads

