

Angelini Pinot Grigio

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy
REGION: delle Venezie
APPELLATION: delle Venezie

THE STORY

A company steeped in Italian heritage. Owners Julius and Paul Angelini spent their childhood years in the farming village of San Lorenzo in Campo, within the Marche region of Italy. The family's third generation, 200-acre farm land features 8 specialized acres devoted to vineyards of Sangiovese, Vernaccia and Merlot. In 1986, Angelini Wine, Ltd. was founded by Julius and Paul Angelini when they were joined by their longtime friend, Ron Plebiscito. The partners are known for their intimate understanding of the production of premium quality wine. The trio makes frequent trips to Italy where they have personal relationships with each producer and visit the vineyards and tour the wine cellars.

THE ADJECTIVES

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Fresh bread crust with subtle citrus, lime nuances. Round white peach with tropical fruits.
MOUTHFEEL: Soft, well balanced and dry

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Seafood, cheese, poultry, fish and soups

