

Dom Bott Saint-Joseph Rouge

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: France

REGION: Rhone

APPELLATION: Saint-Joseph

THE STORY

Julie Bott was born in the Northern Rhône Valley and Graeme Bott is from New Zealand. They met in the small village of Ampuis while working for Stephane Ogier, a producer in Côte-Rôtie. Their passion for wine was the motivation behind the decision to create their own wine estate in the Northern Rhône Valley and together they planted Viognier and Syrah vines in the appellations of CONDRIEU, CÔTE-RÔTIE, SAINT-JOSEPH and SEYSSUEL.

PHILOSOPHY: Graeme and Julie are fiercely passionate about preserving and honoring the incredible terroir they call home and have made a commitment to growing their grapes using sustainable and organic farming practices.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: This wine is a perfect representation of this northern Rhône

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Complex nose with notes of red fruit and smoked lardons

MOUTHFEEL: Vibrant and elegant on the palate

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Roasted poultry and grilled meats

