

Parducci

Small Lot Pinot Noir

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: USA - CA

REGION: Mendocino County

APPELLATION: Mendocino County

THE STORY

Parducci Wine Cellars, the longest-running winery in Mendocino County, has been a cornerstone of California winemaking for over 100 years. Founded by Adolph Parducci, who came from a family with generations of grape growing in Tuscany, the winery is built on decades of tradition, crafting wines that you can trust will be delicious. With a focus on sustainability and quality, Parducci Wine Cellars offers consumers a selection of mainstream, varietally authentic wines sourced from, and true to the Mendocino County appellation. The range consists of chardonnay, pinot noir, petite sirah, merlot, and cabernet sauvignon.

All Parducci Wine Cellars Wines are produced in a California Certified Sustainable Winery.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Bright and juicy with soft tannins

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Bright raspberry, cranberry, and plum

MOUTHFEEL: Full of fresh red berry flavors with subtle floral notes

