THE STORY

BiancaVigna, founded in 2004 by siblings Enrico and Elena Moschetta, produces top-quality sparkling wines from family vineyards in the Conegliano-Valdobbiadene DOCG region, now a UNESCO World Heritage site. The winery's name and logo are inspired by the white Glera grape and local hillside vineyards. Enrico's winemaking expertise and Elena's business acumen, supported by her husband Luca Cuzziol, drive the company. The 32-hectare estate spans three areas: Conegliano, San Pietro di Feletto, and Soligo. BiancaVigna's wines emphasize terroir expression and regional specificity. They're now available globally, featured in Michelin-starred restaurants, leading hotels, and select wine shops.
