THE STORY

Pinino's story began in 1874 with Brunello pioneer Tito Costanti and has grown into a benchmark estate in Montalcino. A founding member of the Brunello Consortium, Pinino blends deep roots with modern precision. In 2003, two families—Austrian and Spanish—revitalized the winery with a shared commitment to quality. In 2024, Pinino joined the prestigious Il Borro Toscana portfolio, owned by the Ferragamo family. With vineyards in Montosoli and northeast Montalcino, Pinino produces elegant, age-worthy Sangiovese wines that reflect the land's unique character and a legacy of excellence.
