THE STORY

Owner of one of the oldest and most renowned Belgian wine and spirit négoce House (1886), Patrick de Coninck had the ambition, together with his friend Albert Michiels to restore the noble reputation and heritage of an extraordinary vineyard and château. Built in the 13th century on the Way of St James, a mere 25 km away from St Emilion, Château Martet is a notable reference of the "Grands Vins de Bordeaux". Today, Patrick de Coninck's legacy is still pursued by his children whom have elevated Château Martet as a definite not-to-be missed.
