THE STORY

Win represents the evolution of the first wine-based soft drink to be patented by Bodegas Familiares Matarromera. In the spirit of working to improve its products, the company continues to invest in this line of action, looking for a means of creating a wine with less than 0.5% alcohol. This product emerged as a response to the increasingly high demand from individuals who are inclined towards responsible consumption and are committed to caring for their diet and health.
