Casas del Bosque
Res Cab Sauvignon

The Facts

COUNTRY: Chile
REGION: Central Valley - Chile
APPELLATION: Rapel Valley

The Story

Casa del Bosque's, was established in 1993 by the Italian descendant Cuneo family. Red clay composites of volcanic origin sit on top of granite layers formed beneath the Pacific Ocean. This soil gives our wines the unique characteristic of mineral, sea salt flavors.

PHILOSOPHY: The constant search for excellence defines Casas del Bosque philosophy. Casas del Bosque's commitment and passion for the environment, and their team is an essential part of the winery.

BIOGRAPHY: In September 2016, Meinard Jan Bloem arrived to Casas del Bosque as Head Winemaker. He studied Agronomy in Chile, and then obtained a Master's Degree in Viticulture and Enology from the Research Institutes of Montpellier, France and Geisenheim, Germany. He worked for several years as both grape grower and winemaker before joining our team.

The Adjectives

OVERALL: Rich & Ripe
AROMAS / FLAVORS: Cassis, Mint, Dried Fig, Raspberry, & Vanilla.
MOUTHFEEL: Dense

The Selling Points

PAIRINGS: Red meats, especially on greasy or spicy preparations.

serendipity wines

Copyright 2024 by Serendipity Wines
www.SerendipityWines.com
UPC: 6 97412 00005 8