THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Scotland

REGION: Highlands

THE STORY

Samaroli was founded in Rome back in 1968 by the late Silvano Samaroli. One of the first bottlers outside of the UK to promote Caribbean rums and cask strength Scotch Whiskey. Early on, Silvano would re-cask selections of whiskey and distribute amongst multiple types of oak. He would eventually become one of Italy's most lauded spirits importers.

Today the company is run by Antonio Bleve (since 2008). Bleve focuses on rebuilding the "whisky soul" through proprietary blends of aged & youthful spirits. Whether it's rum or scotch, the hallmark of all Samaroli spirits is the combination of finesse with unrivaled complexity and depth of flavor.
