

Marc Deschamps Pouilly Fume Les Champs de Cri

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: France

REGION: Loire

APPELLATION: Pouilly-Fume

THE STORY

The domaine consists of 8.5 hectares of vineyards, all of which are located in the legendary sector of Les Loges just north of the village of Pouilly-sur-Loire and known as “the hamlet of the vignerons”.

For several generations this domaine was the property of the Figeat family, most recently under the supervision of Paul Figeat, the long-time mayor of Pouilly Sur Loire. In the 80s, Marc Deschamps worked in collaboration with Monsieur Figeat and continued to do so for over a decade, tending the vineyards and crafting the wine. Upon Paul Figeat’s untimely death in 1991, Marc Deschamps purchased the domaine from the estate. Since that time he has modernized the equipment and continued to add to the well-placed vineyard holdings. These wines are classic examples of the appellation.

