

Bremerton Matilda Plains Red Blend

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Australia

REGION: South Australia

APPELLATION: Langhorne Creek

CEPAGE: 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 40% Syrah

WINEMAKING: The various components were individually fermented in open fermenters then carefully blended

AGING: 10 months in French and American barriques

ANNUAL PRODUCTION: 2000 cases

THE STORY

Bremerton wines are produced in Langhorne Creek. It sits on the rich soil of the Bremer River flood plain and is known as a cool climate region. Sisters Rebecca and Lucy Willson produce award-winning varieties including: Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz, Sauvignon Blanc, Verdelho, Chardonnay, Malbec, and Petit Verdot.

PHILOSOPHY: Rebecca and Lucy subscribe to one philosophy that guides their decisions in the vineyards and the winery: "The best quality practices ensure best quality grapes."

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Juicy, Approachable, Satisfying

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Well balanced palate displays mouth filling fruit, soft well-integrated tannins and lingering finish

MOUTHFEEL: Luscious, soft and supple mouthfeel

THE SELLING POINTS

Women in Wine, price point, screw top

SUSTAINABILITY: Sustainable In Practice, Minimal Intervention / Augmentation

PAIRINGS: Perfect BBQ wine, including burgers, brats and ribs

