THE STORY

Arboleda, which means a grove of trees, is a tribute to the more than 3,583 acres of native forest that surround its sustainably managed vineyards. Founded in 1999, Viña Arboleda is Eduardo Chadwick's personal venture. He represents the fifth generation of Viña Errázuriz's founding family and is also the owner of Seña, Chile's first icon wine, initially born as a joint venture with the legendary Californian vintner Robert Mondavi. Eduardo's vision for his Arboleda project is to make the most sustainable, pure and modern wines to showcase the world-class quality of the best terroirs in the Aconcagua Valley.
