

Cantina Delsignore Gattinara DOCG Res Borgofranco

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy
REGION: Piedmont
APPELLATION: Gattinara
AGING: Min. 4yrs, 3 in oak

THE STORY

At the end of the second world war, the Nervi Family are the owners of vineyards in Gattinara, and are dedicated to the production of wine. Elsa Nervi marries Attilio Delsignore, he too producer of a wine then known as "Spanna". Their combined properties result in five hectares of luxuriant vineyards: Permoline, Lurghe, Sottomonte, Molsino, Villino. The outcome is a tablewine of excellent quality, but Attilio is far-sighted and, in spite of the two families' traditions, decides to work towards producing a vintage wine. Today the Cantina Delsignore continues this exciting journey with the dedication and tenacity inherited from the founder, Attilio Delsignore.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Aromatic & Refined
AROMAS / FLAVORS: A large bouquet of small red fruits, spices, violets
MOUTHFEEL: Deep & Full-bodied

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Enjoy with risotti, braised meats, game, and hard cheeses

