Pellegrini
Pinot Noir Russian River Valley

The Facts

COUNTRY: USA - CA
REGION: Sonoma County
APPELLATION: Russian River Valley

The Story

Family owned for four generations, Pellegrini Wine Company is located in the Russian River Valley. The Pellegrini family name has been associated with every tier of the wine business since the early part of the 20th Century, from grape sellers to wholesale wine distribution. In 1973, the Pellegrinis purchased a 70-acre apple, plum & olive orchard on West Olivet Road. They planted Pinot Noir & Chardonnay, developing one of the region's first vineyards devoted exclusively to these two varieties— the Olivet Lane Vineyard. It was one of the first Pinot Noir estates in the Russian River Valley, and over the years has been the grape source for many of the Valley's Pinot Noir luminaries, in addition to the family's own award-winning Olivet Lane Vineyard Chardonnay & Pinot Noir.

The Selling Points

PAIRINGS: Roasted & grilled dishes, mushroom risotto, aged hard cheese

serendipity wines

Copyright 2024 by Serendipity Wines

UPC: 8 52227 00514 2