

Tenuta Sant Anna Amarone della Valpolicella

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy

REGION: Veneto

APPELLATION: Valpolicella

THE STORY

Tenuta Sant'Anna, which lies some 50 km east of Venice, covers 150 hectares, 140 of which are dedicated to vine growing. It straddles the border between the province of Treviso and the Friuli region, and is one of the largest estate wineries in the eastern Veneto.

In 2015, Riccardo Cottarella, one of Italy's most highly respected and vastly experienced winemakers, joined to contribute his specialist knowledge to the vine growing and wine making team. The team is dedicated to improving vineyard management methods and production protocols, with a goal of expressing the specific characteristics and unique qualities of each individual variety and wine.

THE ADJECTIVES

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Intense black cherry and blueberry notes, with dried fruits and raisins on the finish

MOUTHFEEL: Full-bodied and softly elegant, with an intense flavor.

THE SELLING POINTS

SUSTAINABILITY: Organic In Practice, Minimal Intervention / Augmentation

PAIRINGS: Perfectly paired with game, mature cheeses, grilled and braised meats.

